

The number of officers and staff that are off work due to violence, and a possible trend data for the last five years

Table of injuries involving absences by physical mechanism of injury

*Average period of absence across the 57 instances is 51 weeks

Table of injuries involving absences including non-physical mechanism of injury

*Average period of absence across the 201 instances is 65 weeks

The number of officers and staff that have left the service due to violence in the last five years

24 employees were medically retired during the period; which means the injury has resulted in a permanent inability to work.