

- (d) the person giving the information has a right to have the conduct, or the practice or procedure, reviewed by a court or tribunal constituted by or under a law but has not exercised that right and, having regard to all the circumstances, it would be reasonable for the person to have exercised that right; or
- (e) the giving of the information is frivolous or vexatious; or
- (f) the information is trivial; or
- (g) the person giving the information did not give the information in good faith; or
- (h) the person giving the information does not have a sufficient interest in the AFP conduct issue or the AFP practices issue; or
- (i) the conduct:
- (i) occurred when the AFP appointee was not on duty; or
 - (ii) was private conduct of the AFP appointee; and was lawful and reasonable in the circumstances; or
- (j) the person giving the information is an AFP appointee, or has been an AFP appointee, and the information relates to action taken in relation to that AFP appointee as a result of information that was given and dealt with under this Part; or
- (k) the investigation, or further investigation, of the issue is not warranted having regard to all the circumstances; or
- (l) any other condition specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph is satisfied.
